IRL ("In Real Life") Battle Arena provides games of nerf, laser tag or combat archery (aka "Archery Tag") for birthday parties, corporate team-building, stags and other special occasions. It is a fully turn-key, mobile operation that has been taking part-time bookings for several years and is primed for explosive growth. Set up as a side project during the pandemic when my other businesses were shut down or suffering, now that the pandemic is over these other businesses take up all my time and I cannot devote the attention that Battle Arena requires to grow it to full potential. Don't miss this opportunity to own a unique and exciting business that is fully set-up and already running!
