

340 Young St 11 Parksville BC

$674,900

Tucked in at the end of a cherry blossom lined cul-de-sac, you'll find this bright and open townhouse with space to entertain, store your things and feel right at home. Just a couple of blocks to the stairs that lead to the expansive Parksville beach, many delightful shops and lovely neighbourhoods to walk through. This private, little street is so inviting, you may never want to leave! Walk up the stairs to find the multiple windows showcasing the sky and huge living space. Your inner chef is really going to love this kitchen with large pantry cupboards, plenty of light from the skylight above and ample counter space! The inviting living room with recessed ceiling calls you out to your private deck to listen to the birds and sit amongst the trees. Both bedrooms are very generously sized and each boast two windows. Ensuite has separate tub/shower and both bathrooms have beautiful cabinetry. You're not going to want to miss this central, pristine townhouse!
