

845 Johnson St 1102 Victoria BC

$600,000

Save HUNDREDS on your mortgage payment on a few remaining units in this downtown steel and concrete building. The AHOP program through BC Housing enables buyers with limited incomes and low down payments to purchase these units with the help of a second mortgage that is interest and payment free. This keeps your payments low, often less than comparable rent, and helps you avoid costly mortgage insurance. The VIVID is located in the heart of downtown which makes it possible to walk to just about everything. The near new units are bright and modern with slick finishing and appliances, and already have the GST paid. 1102 specifically is a bright SE. facing unit with lots of sunlight plus city and ocean views. Parking included. The community building environment of Vivid features roof top barbecues, kid and dog play areas plus garden plots. Purchasers must meet income and residency requirements. All meas. are approx. . Additional info and video at the link below. Immediate possession.
