

189 Horel Rd Salt Spring BC

$939,000

This is the BEST small home I've seen on an acreage in a long time! Absolutely pristine, nothing to be done but move in. As you approach via a lovely long driveway, you'll find yourself on a beautiful, south-facing 5-acre property with a mature tree canopy, largely untouched for the past 30 years by the current owners—a rare find indeed. Built in 1994 by a well known Island builder, the home exudes a wonderful sense of space and craftsmanship, with the homeowner's exceptional woodworking skills showcased throughout. From custom wood windows and trim to stunning fir flooring and bespoke kitchen and bedroom cabinetry, every detail has been thoughtfully designed. The property also includes a well-developed garden area, a small workshop, and additional dry storage structures essential for West Coast living. This home and property are an absolute joy to experience. Schedule a viewing—you won't be disappointed. 8.5 GPM drilled well. Zoning allows for an additional principal residence too.
