

MLS® 1029061

1931 Thurber Rd Comox BC

$979,900

Large rural family home on Comox Peninsula! On a landscaped .67 acre lot, this West Coast character home is ready for it's new owners. Vaulted ceilings/skylights on main floor gives this home tons of natural light. The south facing back yard is fully fenced, private, and gives great exposure for the mature fruit trees/berry bushes. There is a main floor access guest suite which would be great for the in-laws! House is warm and inviting with a welcoming front entrance, wood floors, cozy woodburning stove and a convenient electric fireplace in the living area. Bonus room with natural light would make a great artist/crafts room. Storage is not an issue with a huge entrance/room on the ground floor and an extra long garage with workshop space. Quiet rural road with great neighbors, and only a few minutes to all amenities, including downtown Comox, CFB Comox, hospital and college. Brand new roof (2026), septic system inspected and good to go, and quick possession possible
