

2173 Tryon Rd North Saanich BC

$3,990,000

Enchanting two-acre waterfront, complete with its own private dock, stables, cottage, & orchard. Steeped in history and brimming with potential, this property offers endless possibilities. Subdivision potential or enjoy a serene private oasis. The moment you arrive, you'll be captivated by the English country charm of the architecturally designed home. Crafted by renowned architect Hubert Savage for the Tryon family in 1934, the house sits proudly on a southern bluff, offering interesting water views. Step inside and imagine the stories this home could tell of wonderful social gatherings and cherished family moments. Lovingly maintained by the same family for 50 years, a perfect setting to expand your life and bring your creative projects to life. The outbuildings, currently used as pottery and weaving studios, can easily be converted back to hobby farm use or adapted to suit your vision. Embrace the chance to own a piece of history and create your legacy in this truly unique property.
