

2775 Ortona Rd Duncan BC

$1,195,000

Discover this versatile two-storey home on a sprawling, level 1.5-acre lot located within the Urban Containment Boundary. The main residence offers comfortable family living, while the spacious two-bedroom suite on the lower level provides ideal space for extended family or additional income. A detached garage with workshop adds excellent storage and hobby potential. With its generous parcel size, flat usable land, and proximity to the new hospital currently under construction, this property represents outstanding development and investment potential. Whether you're looking for a solid holding property or envisioning future possibilities, this location delivers both immediate livability and long-term upside.
