

2946 Island Hwy Campbell River BC

$899,000

This semi-waterfront home is truly one of a kind and full of character and charm. With vaulted wood ceilings and a unique fireplace constructed with real Mexical Driftstone you can tell it was built with love by the original owners. An open concept kitchen, dining, and living space with large windows gives you the advantage to take in all of the amazing ocean views. Two of the bathrooms were updated not so long ago, and the furnace and fireplace have been replaced. Downstairs can easily be set up for an in-law suite. The backyard is a little piece of paradise with a nice deck for entertaining. This is an amazing location in the heart of Willow Point, steps to Ken Fordes boat ramp, shopping, and the Sea Walk is right across the street. Take your kayak and launch it just steps away from your front door. Another great advantage is the circular driveway, allowing for ample parking as well as additional parking at the side of the home.
