$2,149,000

Architectural Gem! Inspired by Frank Lloyd Wright & designed by acclaimed jewelry creator and artisan Karl Stittgen, "Halcyon Days" is a stunning home with incredible attention to detail. The impeccable level of finish and craftsmanship shines in all aspects of this architectural treasure. Entering the private 6+ acre estate, one first encounters the studio/guest cottage nestled amidst nature; a concentrated version of the quality and serenity of the main home. Winding further up through the forest to a sun-soaked plateau, "Halcyon Days" is built into the hill rather than on it, providing breathtaking ocean views over the Olympic Peninsula and Active Pass! Open-plan living areas are enhanced by the flow of multiple glass doors leading to ample outdoor space. Take the lift from the double garage to this superlative masterpiece aligning in harmony with the spectacular surroundings. A separate Japanese-style Tea House provides calming space for inner reflection, yoga or home office.
