

415 Wilkie Way Salt Spring BC

$2,060,000

The Ultimate Island Retreat! This incredible property of almost 23 private acres features one of the finest designed homes on Salt Spring Island by renowned architect Hank Schubart and beautifully built by Mark Proctor. Known for attention to detail and an innate ability to site residences to settle into the land, Schubart merges this home into the rock. It is the definitive West Coast Contemporary cedar and glass home perfectly designed for retirement living. It is sited on a sunny rock bluff with a level deck onto the rocky shelves for perfect outdoor entertaining. The mountaintop water and forest views may be enhanced. The relationship of the residence with nature is profound...walls of windows in 3 directions from the LR, DR & K, enhanced by vaulted ceilings. This elegant simplicity of this residence is complimented by lovely built in cabinetry and display shelving. Office loft also used as BR3. Enjoy sharing this outstanding residence with friends and family. Call for Brochure.
