$1,999,000

Lambrick Meadows, a highly sought-after neighborhood in Gordon Head, is conveniently located near a recreation center and various levels of schools, including Lambrick High School, Torquary Elementary School, Gordon Head Middle School, and Victoria University. Tucked away at the end of a private driveway on a cul-de-sac, this stunning custom-built home from 2002 stands as the largest and most impressive residence in this esteemed development. This ideal family home boasts up to four bedrooms on the upper floor, along with a self-contained two-bedroom suite on the lower level. The main level features an impressive formal living and dining area with soaring ceilings, complemented by a dramatic family room with 18-foot ceilings adjacent to the dream kitchen and spacious eating area. Both areas offer seamless access to the fabulous outdoor spaces and fenced-in west-facing rear yard. Additional amenities include a heat pump and security system, making this home a true gem.
