

485 6th Ave Campbell River BC

$599,900

Discover the charm of this family-oriented home, which seamlessly combines natural West Coast touches with a spacious, inviting interior. The home proudly displays its character with original hardwood floors, barn wood feature walls, and a uniquely designed fireplace surround, giving it a distinct personality. The layout is thoughtfully designed for both comfort and entertainment. The main level hosts a fluid combination of kitchen, dining, and living areas, ideal for family interactions and entertaining guests. The kitchen, modern and functional, features a handy pass-through to the dining area, making hosting a breeze. Two sets of French doors in the dining room open up to an expansive, fenced backyard, where you're greeted by a large deck, ample green space, and raised garden beds, perfect for outdoor living and gardening enthusiasts. On the second level, the home offers a private retreat with four cozy bedrooms and a bathroom, providing ample space for family and guests.
