

5180 Willis Way Courtenay BC

$2,995,000

Consider your search for the perfect multi-generational home to be over with this phenomenal opportunity. This 7,230 sqft custom home situated on 10+ acres next to Seal Bay Park in the popular Huband area will surely fit the entire family comfortably. The home's gorgeous design and functional layout allows for distinct living areas for each generation without sacrificing size or privacy. One side features a main floor primary bedroom configuration and two additional bedrooms on the second floor. The other focuses on a larger family with 3 beds, 3 baths and roomy living spaces spread over three floors. Each generation's area is separated by a common foyer and family library providing connectivity as you please, but extensive privacy when desired. A vast three bay garage and a detached shop allow for plenty of space for recreational storage. Pickle-ball court for outdoor fun, backing onto park space and close to Huband School, welcome home!
