

5353 Gore Langton Rd Duncan BC

$3,777,000

Welcome to one of the most magical pieces of waterfront land in Cowichan Bay. 5353 Gore Langton Rd is a private low-bank oceanfront property set on 6.25 south-facing, park-like acres with approximately 1000 feet of stunning shoreline. This private estate is the full package featuring the main home, a secondary dwelling and the original cozy cottage all complete with incredible views and breathtaking sunrises from every window. The main home has truly been a passion project for this family and has been built to extremely high standards of sustainability as part of the "Living Building Challenge" producing the majority of its own energy on-site and built to achieve multiple environmental certifications. High-efficiency heat recovery, triple-glazed windows and built to Step 5 building code standards, are only a few of the many features. With sweeping views of the Saanich inlet and located just minutes from the quaint village of Cowichan Bay, this remarkable west coast lifestyle awaits you
