

5595 Seawright Rd Hornby Island BC

$995,999

Spectacular Hornby Island 0.738-acre waterfront. This property boasts a large flat private lot with views overlooking the entrance of Little Tribune Bay with Big Tribune in the distance. Bring plans to build your very own Hornby Island dream home. This partially treed high bank waterfront offers both magnificent vistas as well as privacy; find the perfect location on the property to site your home, or campsite and create a wonderful family retreat. There are currently two outbuildings on the property; the first has power and an Envirolet brand composting toilet and the other, a secure shed. It is less than two kilometers to central road where you will find quaint shops, artisanal goods and a grocery store, and just 2.3 km to world famous Tribune Bay. To access the beach, there is beach access with stairs within 100 meters of the property. This is a generational opportunity as this remarkable property is offered for the first time in almost 50 years.
