

6028 Kaspa Rd Duncan BC

$1,149,000

Open Sunday, September 15th 1:00-3:00. There is a quality feeling to the custom design and finishing, and the back garden is nothing less than spectacular. The front deck offers expansive bird's eye views of the neighbourhood through to Lake Quamichan and beyond and lots of room for sunning. The back patio features exposed aggregate concrete and an interlocking brick gathering area with a built in gas fire pit, and gas BBQ hookup. Primary bedroom on the main level features a walk-in closet, and the ensuite offers heated tile floors, soaker tub and separate shower. The upper level has two generous bedrooms and a full bathroom, so ideal for guests or teens. The garage has lots of natural light, 200 amp electrical and wired for an EV charger. The garden is a masterpiece of tranquility with a professionally designed Zen-inspired Japanese garden filled with unique plantings. Enjoy the hiking and biking trails of Mt. Tzouhalem in your back yard!
