

660 8TH Ave Campbell River BC

$449,900

This centrally located building lot is .32 of an acre and is located close to town and is RM2 zoned which will accommodate a variety of options. You are close to transit and can walk to the downtown area and schools in minutes. There is also lane access which is an added bonus. With new buildings being constructed very close this will be a great investment property. An added bonus is the good possibility of some ocean views if you build up. City sewer and water services to the lot line. This type of land in Campbell River is very limited so go have a look today!
