

8035 Greendale Rd Lake Cowichan BC

$1,850,000

West Coast living at its finest! This family property has been the center of activity for friends, family, and community events. The huge barn adapts to several uses, including storage, monkeywrenching and livestock rearing. The massive hoist makes it easy to move heavy loads and the 200amp separate service provides ample power. The house is custom designed with wood milled on the property and has carved features by local artist, Zak Stolk. Four or five bedrooms, depending on your needs. A suite is possible with the right plan. The outdoor kitchen is perfect for cleaning crab and the 10'x5' cooler room, (with game rack), makes entertaining a breeze. Investor alert! Over six acres within the town boundary makes the idea of subdividing extremely attractive. This could be a fine horse or hobby farm property, lots of room for a riding ring and backs on the Trans Canada trail.
