

820 10TH Ave Campbell River BC

$799,900

This centrally located 4 bedroom family home is situated on a beautiful lot which showcases the amazing ocean and city views. The home has a functional and very unique layout and includes a fully contained brand new in-law suite which would accommodate 2 bedrooms just needing the final finishing touches. Besides the recent cost to finish the downstairs space the homeowners have recently painted and done numerous other things to make the home show like new. Some of the great features of this home include granite kitchen countertops, a spa like ensuite, and a huge additional bedroom off the primary suite which would be great for a nursery, media room, or gym. Another awesome feature is the room and space to park your RV, or boat. Location is great and you can easily walk to all the amenities that downtown has to offer. Call your Realtor today to come have a look for yourself. Please note the downstairs bedrooms (almost finished) are included as the four bedrooms.
