

890 Wembley Rd French Creek BC

$999,000

Well established Sushi restaurant reputed to be the best in the area. Sam uses only the freshest ingredients and prepares these mouth watering treats on the premises as they are ordered. The business has been in operation for many years and has excellent highway frontage and high visibility for passing tourists and residents alike. Ample parking and ease of access to the lot from 2 sides makes this abundantly accessible location the perfect place to pull in for an in house experience or a quick pick up to take home. Do not delay as this opportunity does not come along often. The right owner will see immediate income as the template is in place to take advantage of the successful business Sam has built over the years. An excellent return on your investment along with the freedom that comes from owning your own space means you will be secure in these uncertain times in the real estate market.
