$599,900

If you're looking for something brand new and full of modern design and finishing, this home is worth taking a look at. Enjoy your private backyard space outside and the fact you are only minutes from the downtown area and even closer to the golf course, which makes this a great investment for someone retiring, downsizing, or starting out. Another great selling feature is the fact that this half duplex has NO strata fees. Inside this functional floor plan, you will find 3 spacious bedrooms upstairs with a gorgeous ensuite and another full bathroom. Downstairs, you will find 9-foot ceilings and an open concept kitchen, living, and dining room space great for entertaining with a large slider out to the backyard which will bring in a ton of natural light. You will also find the huge laundry room and single garage, a great help for any additional storage that may be needed. This home will include fence and landscaping and should be complete for early summer 2024.
