

Rural Parkland County Alberta

$655,000

Crafted to Endure. Designed to Be Remembered. A fully restored authentic log home near Wabamun Lake, where natural materials and meticulous craftsmanship define the experience. At the center are two dramatic hand-laid stacked stone fireplaces—crafted stone-by-stone, one on each floor, to create natural depth, texture, and presence. It anchors the space and reflects a level of artisan construction rarely achieved today. Authentic log construction and rich natural materials create a timeless ambiance. Professional restoration, including updated sealants and chinking, enhances durability while preserving the integrity of the home. Warm, functional living spaces support both quiet mornings and gatherings. A large heated garage/shop, mature private setting, and covered outdoor areas extend the experience year-round. A level of craftsmanship rarely seen in today's construction—this is a home that supports the kind of moments people hold onto, built to be appreciated today and carried forward for years to come.
