

Edmonton Alberta

$500,000

Beautifully maintained bungalow in the heart of Queen Mary Park, blending mid-century modern charm with thoughtful updates throughout. 3 bedrooms plus an extra room in the basement perfect for guests, an office or a gym. Built in 1950, this home features original curved archways, updated hardwood flooring, large windows and a functional layout with a finished basement and plenty of storage. Major upgrades include newer windows, roof, eaves, downspouts and electrical updates, offering peace of mind while preserving the home's character. Outside, the fully fenced and landscaped backyard feels like a private urban oasis with mature trees, a concrete patio and double detached garage. Enjoy one of Edmonton's most central locations with quick access to downtown, the University of Alberta, NAIT and Kingsway, while being just a short walk to the Brewery District, 124 Street and other local favourites.
