Welcome home to this beautifully maintained 3 bedroom townhouse in a rare large dog friendly community. The main floor is warm and inviting with a functional kitchen offering plenty of storage, a spacious dining area perfect for family dinners or hosting friends, and a bright living room overlooking your private backyard. Upstairs features three generous bedrooms and a full bathroom, providing comfortable space for family, guests, or a home office. The fully finished basement adds even more versatility with a cozy recreation room, den or office space, laundry area, mechanical room, and plenty of additional storage. Step outside to your fully fenced backyard complete with a deck and beautiful landscaping, creating a private low maintenance space perfect for relaxing or letting kids and pets play. With two parking stalls right outside your door and located in a quiet cul de sac, you will enjoy quick access to 97 Street, Anthony Henday, shopping, and everyday amenities, plus schools within walking distance.
