

Edmonton Alberta

$285,000

Welcome to this great character home built in 1929 with century old doors! On the main floor there are two bedrooms with great details on the walls, a humungous bathroom and an updated kitchen. The floorplan is a wonderful open space! The upstairs has a cute open staircase leading to a large den for additional square footage. The roof has new shingles and drip caps, the foundation has been repaired professionally and sealed, the floors have been sanded and refinished, painting and other renos have been completed as well! The backyard is an oasis of its own with a huge Black Oak tree and incredible vines and green foliage! A single car garage with a fenced carport for your parking needs. This home has almost 100 years of memories and now its time to create those for yourself. Come see yourself living here. (id:6769)
