Some homes just fit the season of life you are in. This 2018-built Keswick half duplex is one of them. At 1,724 SF, the layout gives you room to actually live, with an open main floor filled with natural light, a kitchen featuring quartz counters, a central island, and stainless appliances, a bonus room that becomes whatever you need it to be this year, three bedrooms upstairs, laundry where it belongs, and a primary suite with a walk-in closet that makes the morning routine a little less chaotic. The double attached garage means winter gets easier too. Outside your front door, Movati is walkable, El Corazon is close enough for a Tuesday night out, and Keswick keeps growing in all the right ways. The basement is unfinished and ready for whatever comes next. Under $480,000 for this much space in Southwest Edmonton does not come around often. (id:6769)
