

Edmonton Alberta

$176,900

This two bedroom home is as close to owning single family as you can get as it offers the privacy you're looking for. Located away from the parking lot all you see from your picture window is single family homes. The wood burning fireplace can be enjoyed from both living room and dining room. There is a pass-thru between the kitchen and dining room giving an open feeling for both rooms. Just off the kitchen there is space for a deep freeze and extra storage. The master bedroom has a walk-thru closet with direct access to the bathroom without using the hallway. Tamarack South has been home to many families within walking distance to both elementary and junior high schools. The conveniences you require are all close, with shopping, transit and in close proximity to the airport. (id:6769)
