Welcome to Cedarwood Village! a well-managed complex that has been completely redone on the exterior, now offering a modern, sophisticated look. The complex has also benefited from major upgrades, including newer windows, exterior doors, and shingles. Inside, this freshly painted home is exceptionally well-kept and features newer stainless steel appliances, along with durable laminate flooring throughout the main floor and carpeting upstairs. Both bathrooms have been tastefully updated with modern sinks, countertops, and an upgraded tub surround. Large deck in the back yard. The fully developed basement offers a fun retro vibe with pine and stucco finishes, a built-in bar, and a convenient storage room—an ideal space for kids or entertaining. Located in a highly desirable area, this unit is close to shopping, schools, and public transportation, and the parking stall is right out the back door making it a perfect blend of comfort and convenience.
