Welcome to Royal Apartments located in the Beacon Heights neighbourhood. Most of the homes in Beacon Heights are single- and semi- detached homes built in the decade leading up to amalgamation. Higher density housing is located closer to commercial areas and traffic routes, and was built between 1960 and 1980. The focus of community activity in Beacon Heights is the Beverly Jubilee Park and the adjoining Beacon Heights Community League facilities. Pride of ownership can be seen throughout this 2.5 storey wood frame building with brick and stucco exterior. Built in 1965, this building consists of 12 spacious one bedroom units. All units individually metered for electricity. Surface paved parking. Building has been very well managed and requires minimal maintenance. (id:6769)
