Hitting the market for the first time in 16 years, this remarkable custom-built residence combines timeless elegance with high-end upgrades that make it truly one-of-a-kind. Upon entry, you're greeted by an open-to-below foyer that fills the home with an abundance of natural light. The exquisite craftsmanship is evident in every detail, from the stunning iron railings to the imported crystal chandeliers that add a touch of sophistication to every room. Hand-painted 18k gold leaf trims enhance the elegance of the space, showcasing the level of care and quality invested in this home. The spacious layout flows effortlessly, offering tons of natural light throughout and ample room for family gatherings and entertaining. The low-maintenance private yard provides a serene retreat, perfect for relaxation or hosting guests. With two 20-foot columns right outside your front door this house -inside and out - makes you feel like your home away from home. This home is truly a rare find. (id:6769)
