If space, flexibility, and move-in-ready comfort are high on your list, this fully finished end unit townhome in Tawa delivers. With over 2,000 sq ft of total living space, there is room for the entire family to spread out, gather, work, and relax. Vaulted ceilings give the main floor an open, airy feel, while fresh paint throughout makes the home feel bright and welcoming. The beautiful kitchen offers plenty of room to cook and gather, with space for a full dining table so family meals and entertaining never feel cramped. Downstairs, the second kitchen, large family/living area, office space, bathroom & laundry room, and generous storage create incredible flexibility for larger or extended families. Add central A/C, an enclosed deck with gas hookup, two parking stalls right outside your door, and a location minutes from Grey Nuns Hospital, shopping, transit, and the LRT, and you have a home with the space and versatility to truly grow into.
