

Edmonton Alberta

$257,500

Build your custom REAR-ATTACHED GARAGE home in The Estates of Keswick on the River, a sought-after community in Southwest Edmonton. This 30' pocket lot offers the opportunity to create a home with the sought-after curb appeal of a rear-attached garage design, allowing for an inviting front elevation and the potential for expansive front-facing windows that fill your living space with natural light. Surrounded by established homes, scenic ponds, parks and an extensive network of walking trails, the neighbourhood offers a beautiful setting with everyday convenience. With much of the surrounding construction already complete, you'll enjoy the feel of an established community from day one. Joey Moss School is nearby, and major roadways provide easy access throughout the city. The lot also offers the potential for 150-amp electrical service, providing added flexibility during the design and construction process. (id:6769)
