Built by Sterling Homes, this bright and welcoming laned home in McConachie is designed for families who want comfort, space, and a layout that simply makes life easier. A sunny front living room with luxury vinyl plank flooring creates a cheerful first impression, while the central kitchen offers quartz counters, an island with seating, upgraded cabinetry, a Silgranit sink, and a spacious pantry. The dining area at the back of the home enjoys backyard views and easy access to the future deck, with a half bath and rear entry tucked conveniently nearby. Upstairs, an open loft adds flexible space for work, play, or relaxing. The primary suite features a walk-in closet and an ensuite with a stand-up shower. Two additional bedrooms, a full bath, and upper-floor laundry keep daily routines simple and organized. With a separate side entrance, a parking pad, and basement rough-ins for future development, this home offers everyday practicality in a growing community close to parks, schools, and amenities.
