

Edmonton Alberta

$979,000

This home has undergone a full transformation with high-quality finishes and thoughtful design throughout, offering the kind of space and functionality that works beautifully for a growing family. Designed by Kresswell Interiors and brought to life by Revive Developments, the level of detail and care here is easy to see. Having been involved in the renovation process firsthand, I can genuinely speak to the craftsmanship and decisions that went into this home—it wasn't rushed or done halfway. The upgrades carry through to the exterior as well, with a landscaped backyard featuring a hot tub set on a concrete pad, creating a great space to unwind or entertain. An oversized double garage and large driveway provide plenty of room for parking and everyday convenience. This is one of those homes that simply feels well done the moment you walk through—thoughtful, functional, and ready for its next owners. (id:6769)
