Experience timeless elegance in this top-floor corner loft within the historic McLeod Building. Built in 1915 and designated as a Provincial and Municipal resource, this concrete and steel landmark blends turn-of-the-century character with vibrant downtown living. Step into a sun-drenched space featuring soaring 10-foot ceilings, 7-foot windows, and dual South/West exposures. A loft style layout with open bedroom area, full bathroom with washing machine. The interior of the building preserves its heritage with oak-paneled doors, brass hardware, and marble-clad walls. Located in the heart of the city, you are steps away from the LRT, boutique shopping, and the best bistros and nightlife. This trendy loft is the ultimate find for anyone seeking a piece of architectural history with an urban pulse. (id:6769)
