Nestled steps from Mill Creek Ravine, this Strathcona mid-century raised bungalow seamlessly pairs timeless era-authentic charm with brilliant functional design. Lovingly maintained by an artistic eye for over 30 years, the main level features rich wood paneling, original wood cabinetry with vintage hardware, a classic brick facade, and classic four-pane windows that perfectly capture fresh air without a draft. The main floor hosts three bedrooms, complemented by two bright lower-level bedrooms with oversized windows that flood the space with natural light. A rear mudroom opens to a lovely backyard and detached single garage. Adding outstanding versatility, a separate legal one-bedroom basement suite retains its mid-century soul alongside refreshed flooring. Newer shingles and improved concrete grading ensure complete peace of mind. Tucked on a quiet tree-lined street near local bakeries and cafes, this meticulously cared-for home is a rare gem ready for its next proud owner. (id:6769)
