This well-kept bi-level in La Perle offers versatility, warmth, and an ideal east-west orientation with morning light in the front and sunsets over the fenced, west-facing backyard. The main level features wood-clad ceilings that add natural character to the kitchen, living, and dining areas, complemented by a gas fireplace and sliding glass doors that open to the upper deck and yard with fire table. The carpet-free layout includes two bedrooms, along with a 2-piece ensuite and walk-in closet in the primary suite. The fully finished lower level extends the home's functionality with three additional bedrooms, a second kitchen, a three-piece bathroom, and another gas fireplace, an excellent setup for extended family or guests. With a double attached garage offering interior access, this home provides comfort, flexibility, and thoughtful design in a family-friendly community. (id:6769)
