

Rural Strathcona County Alberta

$1,500,000

Opportunity Knocks! This 49-acre parcel is presently zoned Rural Residential/Agriculture (RA) and is identified in Strathcona County's Municipal Development Plan (MDP) as part of the future Local Employment Area. A municipal sewer line runs directly in front of the property, offering a valuable utility connection. The Local Employment Area designation supports light and medium industrial development, opening the door for a wide range of future possibilities. Whether you're looking to develop now under the current RA zoning, or hold and capitalize on the long-term industrial potential, this is a rare opportunity in a growing region. Take your pick - develop today and let the future pay dividends. (id:6769)
