In a bungalow condo on a quiet lane, Where the sunrise dances on the windowpane, Two bedrooms waiting on the main floor light, And a basement finished for your party nights. Stainless steel shining like a new love spark, Three bathrooms glowing even after dark, A front veranda where the day feels slow-- Sit, relax, watch the gentle morning glow. An extra-long garage for all your things, From camping chairs to comeback dreams, Close to Henday's heartbeat humming through, And the grocery store is close to you. And when you're craving something warm and sweet, Crumbl Cookies calls from just down the street. Come take a step where your next verse starts-- A place to settle in and steal your heart. (id:6769)
