

10883 Saskatchewan Drive 1902 Edmonton AB

$130,000

Strathcona House, a concrete construction high-rise in the heart of Edmonton. Walk in any direction and you will find everything from shops to fabulous local restaurants and public transportation. This prime location is very close to the University of Alberta. Get outside and take a deep breath: running, walking, or biking along the river valley could be an everyday activity. Enjoy the vibrancy of the city or the serenity of nature. Take a moment & soak up the view from your balcony. Enjoy all the luxury this condo has to offer, with hardwood floors, modern white & red kitchen, a full bathroom, tons of natural light, a large primary bedroom and a den (perfect for a home office, dining space or guest/roommate). The building also features energized parking, storage lockers, a large card-operated laundry room, exercise room, social room, 24 hour security and a large garden courtyard! Condo fees include all utilities (except internet). Welcome to the vibrant and low-maintenance living dream!
