This well cared for bungalow style townhome has the ultimate prime positioning within the complex. Being the end unit backing onto a park setting, green space bordering the east property line and surrounded by privacy fencing create a rare opportunity. As you drive through this complex it is very apparent that pride of ownership is a priority to all its owners. Two expensive upgrades in recent years are the new vinyl windows and roof shingles. The interior is immaculate and move-in ready. The main floor has a four piece bath, two good sized bedrooms, a large kitchen with designated dining space, and a generous living room. The lower level is fully finished with two large multi purpose rooms, a second bath and laundry room. Other key features include, A high efficiency furnace and Hardsurface plank flooring throughout both levels . Show with confidence ! Virtual staging used in presentation. (id:6769)
