

Rural Lac Ste Anne County Alberta

$44,900

Your next home away from home in style! If you are looking to park your RV (or develop into a prairie cabin) this spot is where you want to be. This exclusive development is an hour out of Edmonton and offers that much needed peace and quiet. This large lot is served with an RV pad complete with services (water, power and a 750 gallon holding tank) and is privately treed with an area perfect for your firepit gathering spot! There are amenities on location with guest camping so friends and family can stay! If you are an avid nature watcher or hiker you will love partaking in the 147 acres of natural trails to explore, or a late day canoe ride around the lake is the perfect way to round off the day. Oh, and if your family is worried about being off line dont fret. There is access to internet available. Make this your place to retreat! (id:6769)
