What a find! Located in a quiet and friendly keyhole crescent with ideal access to schools, shopping, transit without losing privacy. Be impressed with the curb appeal - updated siding, careful landscaping, and a great driveway for guests! Yes, the home has been loved through its years. Enter to be impressed by the openness of the floor plan - updated to keep it young but a mantled fireplace to remind you of its history. 3 charming bedrooms, an ensuite, too! Note the main bathroom has been renovated - deep tub and all! The kitchen has an openness without losing its workability. On the way to the basement be sure to check the fantastic back yard - truly an oasis after a hard day's work! The partially-finished basement has the hard part done-a second kitchen and a 3pc bath. Flooring and a little finishing with a private split entry back door has suite possibilities. Don't miss the double garage! Is this perfect? Close to it!! (id:6769)
