Some houses move beyond logical and you just know they are the right one. This is exactly that. The moment you walk through the door is that grounding exhale I'm Home. Dropping your things off in the large mudroom off the triple garage and flipping the laundry before following the delicious aroma of dinner into the kitchen. You find the island kitchen filled with laughter, sharing stories from the day. Someone is finishing work at the table and you move through the sunlit living room to the primary suite to decompress. Passing the dual sinks, soaker tub and shower to change in the walk-in closet. After dinner everyone moves downstairs to get in a workout and share a cold drink before watching a movie to unwind. The kids retreat to their own bedrooms getting ready for bed in front of their own sinks in the 4 pce bath. You get the dog out for a walk around the pond before catching the last rays of sun on the deck. Weekend errands have never been easier with Costco and restaurants just around the corner. (id:6769)
