

Waskatenau Alberta

$264,900

Suberbly maintained home on a large lot in the town of Waskatenau. This spacious bungalow shows extremely well and has received several updates within the last few years such as roof, windows, furnace and hot water tank. This home boasts a huge living room with picture window, adjacent to a bright kitchen and dining room with view on the landscaped backyard, this welcoming and comfortable main floor also features 3 good size bedrooms and large full bath. The sunny lower level is only a few steps down from the rear entrance and dispays all new large windows throughout, you'll love the developed family room, there is also tons of room to have up to 2 more bedrooms, you'll also enjoy the funtional laundry/utility room with its cool storage room and another full bath for extra convenience. The private 8393 SF lot is everything you'd expect from premium small town living, it boasts a long concrete driveway leading to a single detached garage, which is powered and was also provided with a new roof. A must-see! (id:6769)
