Looking for secure, heated parking downtown? Here's your opportunity to own an underground parking stall at The Venetian. Excellent opportunity to own a secure, heated underground parking stall in The Venetian, ideally located in the heart of Downtown Edmonton. Ownership or residency in the building is not required, making this a great option for anyone who lives, works, or attends school nearby. The stall is conveniently located on the upper level of the underground parkade and offers easy access to MacEwan University, Rogers Place, the ICE District, Downtown businesses, shopping, restaurants, and public transit. Use the stall for yourself and enjoy the convenience of warm, secure parking year-round, or rent it out as an investment to a nearby resident, student, or Downtown professional. With its central location near MacEwan University and Rogers Place, this is a great opportunity to secure your own Downtown parking space or add a unique income-producing asset to your portfolio.
