

Rural Westlock County Alberta

$70,000

Discover 7.73 acres of country potential in Westlock County, ideally located along Hwy 801 just north of Dapp Corner Store and within easy reach of Long Island Lake. This partially treed parcel offers an appealing setting for a future country home, recreational retreat or weekend getaway. The shape and depth of the property provide options for a private building site set well back from the road with a long driveway, creating extra privacy and separation. Enjoy peaceful rural surroundings while staying close to Long Island Lake, known for its campground, beach, boat launch, swimming, boating, paddling and fishing opportunities. A great opportunity to create your own private acreage retreat with convenient access to area recreation. (id:6769)
