

1890 Cooper Road 1, c/o Kelowna British Columbia

$179,000

Located in a busy shopping plaza with strong anchor tenants, this well-established specialty food market and supplier has been a trusted local favourite for more than 15 years. With consistent annual sales exceeding $620K, this business offers stable income and excellent potential for growth. The premises feature a fully equipped commercial kitchen, walk-in freezer and cooler, and ample space for inventory and food preparation. Streamlined operations allow the business to run efficiently with only two staff members. Ample customer parking and a loyal customer base—including repeat restaurant and retail clients—ensure steady revenue and continued success. Experience in the food industry is an asset but not required. This is a business assets only sale. A rare opportunity to acquire a reputable, turnkey operation with room to expand in a growing community. Please do not approach staff. Viewing by appointment only. Further details available to qualified buyers upon signing an NDA. (id:6769)
