

126 Lee Avenue Penticton British Columbia

$899,900

Welcome to Lee Avenue, just steps from Canada's world-renowned Skaha Park and beaches. This charming three-bedroom, two-bath ranch-style home offers effortless one-level living with a relaxed California beach vibe. The open-concept kitchen and living area seamlessly connect to the South wing bedrooms and outdoor spaces, creating a natural flow for family living and entertaining. The spacious primary suite features a beautifully updated ensuite bath and generous closet space, offering both comfort and style. Set on a large, flat lot, the property is a blank canvas ready for your personal touches--whether you envision an Okanagan retreat or a vibrant outdoor lifestyle. With ample parking for RVs, boats, and guests, plus lane access and a detached double garage, the possibilities are endless. This neighborhood also allows for creative options such as building a carriage house or developing a guest suite for added income potential. Homes like this rarely come available in such a coveted location. Don't miss your chance--call today for more information or to book your private showing. (id:6769)
