

2150 Spall Road Kelowna

$2,500,000

Don't miss this very rare opportunity to own a flat 5.15 acre property in the heart of Kelowna, with a 4 bedroom, 1.5 bath split level home. The main level of the home has a spacious kitchen with fridge, electric stove and additional built-in oven, adjacent dining area and large living room, with providing access to the enclosed sunroom. The lower level has 3 large bedrooms including the Primary suite which features a large dressing room and 2 piece ensuite bathroom. In the basement you will find the rec room, 4th bedroom and a large laundry room. Attached to the main house is a double garage with lots of space for a workshop. Also on the property is a detached triple car garage that is both powered and heated. There is no shortage of storage space with the 2 large storage sheds. Enjoy relaxing in your choice of sauna, hot tub or above ground pool. Property is serviced by a newer Well, and has an irrigation channel with water rights, as well as a separate well and septic system which was used for a mobile home which is no longer there. Tons of options with the land including argi-tourism, alcohol production facilities, farm retail sales, or kennels, plus new ALR rules may permit a second home on the property! Endless opportunities here!!
